BEGINNING OF SOCIAL SEASON AT TATE SPRING

Hotel Rapidly Filling With Guests. Number of Informal Parties Given.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Tate Spring, Tenn., June 18.—Another season at Tate Spring has been fairly opened, and from now until October the social life will be a busy one. The hotel is rapidly filling with delightful people from all over the country, and all of the many diversions have their constant devotees. The bowling alleys and the casino make the most popular rendezvous for those who are not strenuous enough in their tastes to play golf, ride horseback or take mountain climbs. A number of informal parties have been given during the week, which added a great deal to the happy social life, in which parties are arranged apparently on the inspiration of the moment, dainty prizes are awarded unexpectedly, and the enjoyment possesses the inspiration of spontaneity. Among those participating in the social life at Tate Spring this week were Mr. and Mrs. Millanau, Meridian, Miss. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Knight, Clifford V. Anderson, Jr., R. ## WHITE SULPHUR OPENS FOR SUMMER SEASON

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., June 18.—The season opened here Wednesday with a goodly representation from nearly every State east of the Mississippi River, the largest number of representatives, of course, coming from the Southern States—Texas, Louisiana, Tennessee, Georgia, Mississippi, North and South Carolina having the largest number of guests in the hotel. There are numbers here from Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. Among the prominent guests already here are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. The Westmoreland Club, of Richmond, and the most prominent social organizations of the "Old South," with 400 members, will arrive here in a body to spend July 15 to 18. These annual horse show, will make the season an unusually good one. Golf, tennis, hunting, fishing, boating, mountain climbing and, in fact, every form of outdoor exercise, keeps the guests busy in the day time. The handsome new casino has added much to the attraction of the place this season. At night impromptu dances, hops and Germans keep the guests interested and amused. Those who wish are finding ample rest here, and those who wish to spend the time easily do not fail to seek to become well satisfied. At the rate the guests are arriving and talking of staying, the season here will extend way late in the fall at least. The many improvements made on the hotel, cottages and grounds have justified the claim of the management that it is now the "Old White" made new. Among the well-known Richmond guests at the opening of the season of

FULL SOCIAL CALENDAR FOR HOT SPRINGS GUESTS

Week One of Midsummer Getaway—Great Increase in Number of Arrivals.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Virginia Hot Springs, June 18.—With a good house count, the hotel here, and nearly all the cottages on either side of the mountain occupied or leased for the summer, and a constantly increasing influx of arrivals every day the week has been one of almost midsummer gaiety. The hotel here has included several large bridge parties, picnics, teas and musicals in the villa colony, and the usual more informal old Virginia luncheons, teas and suppers at the farmhouses. One of the largest and most attractive affairs of the week was the luncheon and musical given by Mrs. William Armistead Lane, on Sunday afternoon at the Daniel Boone Log Cabin. Luncheon was followed by a song recital, when Mrs. Lane sang with Mrs. John A. Black as accompanist, at the Tree Tops Bungalow to a company which included among others: Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Erhart, Mrs. William H. Jackson, Mrs. David Dunlop, Mrs. Latham Bartlett, Miss Laura MacDonald Stallo, John B. Knox, Charles M. Hinkle and Mr. Lane. Mrs. Jackson entertained the company at tea at Edmondstone Lodge, upon their return late in the afternoon. The most attractive affair given for members of the younger set was a tea given in the Japanese room on Thursday afternoon, by C. F. Walters, for the Misses Maud and Gertrude White, Estelle Brewer, Margaret Shepard and Helen Kennedy, following aquatic sports in the pool.

Opening at Ocean View.

Ocean View, Va., June 18.—Bookings at the Ocean View Hotel are on the increase, and the season, while yet young, is really also in full swing. For every day there is an increase in the number of arrivals at the famous shore resort. Proprietor Charles H. Consove has received inquiries from more States this year than ever in regard to reservations, and during July, August and September, it is anticipated that every room in the house will be taken. The trend of travel seems to be Ocean Viewward, and thousands will be down to the shore, and the hotel, which faces directly on the Chesapeake Bay. The pergola, or open-air summer garden, has in the past been a kind of a hit, and one of the features is the musical portion by the Neapolitan Orchestra, of native instrumentalists, who are heard in delightful programs.
